Contents

Working group vii
Contributors to first edition viii
Preface to the second edition ix
Preface to the first edition x
Contact details and further information xi
How to use your textbook xii

PART 1: Introduction 1

1 The epidemiology and incidence of major incidents 3
2 Are we ready for the next major incident? 11
3 The structured approach to the hospital response 15

PART 2: Preparation 21

4 Planning for major incidents 23
5 Major incident equipment 27
6 Training 33

PART 3: Management 37

7 The scaleable hierarchy concept 39
8 The clinical hierarchy 43
9 The nursing hierarchy 55
10 The management hierarchy 65

PART 4: Support 79

11 Declaring a major incident and activating the plan 81
12 The reception phase 87
13 Triage 97
14 The definitive care phase 107
15 The recovery phase 111

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL

PART 5: Special incidents 115

16 Incidents involving hazardous chemicals 117

17 Incidents involving a large number of burns 129

18 Incidents involving large numbers of children 139

Template annexe of local highlights 149

Glossary 159

Index 161